Meet Tristen Thomas!

Tristen serves as our Management Analyst! He joined the county in February 2024 and is a graduate of North Oconee High School and the University of Georgia with a degree in Finance. He currently lives in Athens and enjoys woodworking and reading when he is not in the office.

Tristen says his favorite thing about working at Oconee County is being able to work with individuals in all departments and seeing the diversity of thoughts and ideas in everyone’s perspective.

“Tristen brings a great combination of intelligence, enthusiasm, and a genuine interest in understanding people and processes,” says County Administrator Justin Kirouac. “As we work on continuous improvement in our operations, Tristen will provide a great resource for the county.”

Thank you, Tristen, for all you do for Oconee County!

From the IT Workroom: Human Firewall

What Is a 'Human Firewall'? You may have heard of this term in your Security Training this year, so let's dive into it!

A firewall scans and identifies threats/potentially malicious actions on a network. It acts like a security guard, checking the traffic flowing in and out from our network, based on a set of rules it has been given. It's an essential part of any safe network! When you take your time to ensure someone's badge is scanned for access to a secure location, or you reach out to IT to check on a suspicious file you received, you're acting as a Human Firewall. Not only are you protecting yourself by thinking critically about an email requesting your credentials, but you're also protecting everyone here at the county by playing it safe if something feels suspicious!

We can't stress enough how valuable it is to hone this skill, as cyber-crime is always evolving. We can have the best equipment in the industry, or the best IT staff in the world (we'd like to think so!), but it all depends on your ability to discern a legitimate source from a potential threat.

We're grateful for every request we get to look over any security concerns and welcome all questions on how to better your growing skill as a Human Firewall!

Feel like you're ready to brush up on your skills? Check out the phish email sample below to see how you can identify the red flags in your email's inbox.
