- Base charge applies to each meter.
- Meter sets may remain in Will Call for one year maximum. Deposits will be refunded thereafter and new applications, application fees and deposits will be required to reopen. All applications will be disposed of after 10 days with no payment. Application fee is still due and must be paid prior to establishing service as well as any new charges associated with a new application.
- If a mailed bill is not received, this does not relieve the customer from paying delinquent bill. Call Water Office 706-769-3960.
- Non-payment in our office by the due date is subject to a 10% late fee ($2.00 minimum) of the delinquent amount. After hours calls to reconnect before office reopens will incur additional charges
- Water meters must be accessible at all times, and are located in the county right-of-way. Please maintain landscaping to a three- foot radius so the meter is accessible. Failure to maintain landscaping may result in cutting or removal by the Water Department and a fine for obstruction.
- If payment is not received in our office by 21 calendar days past the due date, $40 will be added to the account and service discontinued.
- Failure to give a termination date in writing will result in customer being responsible for any water usage until account is closed.
- Tampering with meter will result in a fine of $250.00.

I agree with all contents of this application, and will conform to all policies of Oconee County Water Resources. I also authorize service and accept responsibility for the bill at the service address listed above.
